Hello,

The following submission has been edited.

Track Name: ICCIT2022

Paper ID: 10

Paper Title: A Survey On Applications Of Parallel And Distributed System

Abstract:

This article offers several parallel and distributed system applications. Different distributed and parallel system architectures have been created and are widely utilized in daily life. The properties of distributed systems, as well as their difficulties and restrictions, are examined in this paper. Additionally, the need for parallel and distributed systems is supported. We thoroughly examine several distributed and parallel system types, highlighting their importance and capabilities. For a better understanding of the enormous disparities between these systems and conventional methods, evaluation results are also supplied.
